"Running From God" Jonah 1:1-16

1)
7)
- •
3)
Where did God instruct Jonah to go?
Why did He instruct Jonah to go to Nineveh?
What did Jonah do?	_ _
see that Jonah did "arise", he did "go", but he did not go to Nineveh, but he went down to
But we are told that he not only wanted to get as far away fro from the presence of the	om Nineveh as he could, but he also wanted t lea
Can anyone escape the presence of the Lord?
Psalm tells us God is everywhere.
In this story of Jonah we see that God is:
1)= meaning everywhere
2)= meaning all knowing
3)= meaning all powerful
Who sent the great wind and caused the storm on the sea?
These sailors on the ship wanted to know who had caused thicause?
They questioned Jonah and finally he told them that he was a	, that he feared the
, who made the sea and the dry land."
They asked Jonah what they should do so the sea would be ca	alm for them, he told them to do what?
remember Jesus threw Himself into the pit of God's wrath, the Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw hi forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a	im into the sea to save them. But we must not ely innocent and obedient to the Father. And
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
lesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw hi forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a	im into the sea to save them. But we must not ely innocent and obedient to the Father. And
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.
Jesus did that to rescue us. Jonah tells these men to throw his forget that Jesus came as the perfect lamb and was complete Jonah was the exact opposite, he was disobedient and was a Scripture References: Jonah 1:1-16, Nahum 3:1-4, Matthew 28:19-20, Acts 1:8, Psalm 139:7-10, James 4:17,	im into the sea to save them. But we must not tely innocent and obedient to the Father. And definitely not innocent.